Limited funds are available for partial scholarships for this year's BOW multi-course workshop. Preference will be given to first-time workshop participants who are fulltime students, single parents of young children and/or those who live in low-income households. The full cost of the workshop is $395 and the partial scholarships will cover $200. The remainder of the registration fee ($195) is the responsibility of the participant.

To be considered for Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation/BOW scholarship aid, submit your completed workshop registration form and a check for your portion of the registration fee with this application by October 8th, 2010. Your check will be refunded if a scholarship is not awarded. For more information, contact Susan Herrgesell, President, BOW California at susan@bowca.org or 530-347-0227.

Scholarship application deadline October 8, 2010.

Return this scholarship application, your completed BOW workshop registration form and check payable to BOW, California to:
